NOTICE OF FACULTY VACANCY
Music Marketing

POSITION: The Department of Music at the University of Texas at San Antonio seeks qualified applicants for an Assistant Professor of Music (Tenure Track) in the area of Music Marketing to be effective Fall 2015. Primary responsibilities involve coordinating teaching, student recruiting, supervising, and advising students enrolled in the Bachelor of Music with an emphasis in Music Marketing. Additional responsibilities include involving music marketing students in audience development for UTSA Department of Music events. Scholarship and/or creative work and service activities will be expected commensurate with a tenure track position.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: A Masters Degree in Music, Music Business, Arts Administration, Business Administration, or other advanced degree appropriate for the field; a record of successful teaching experience, and professional activity in music. Preferred qualifications include professional distinction in music marketing, entrepreneurship, and/or management.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC: The Department offers programs leading to the B.M. in music education, performance, composition, and music marketing, and the M.M. in music education, conducting, performance, piano pedagogy and vocal pedagogy. The faculty comprises 65 full- and part-time members who serve a student body of over 300 undergraduate and graduate students. The Department occupies a facility that includes a 500-seat Recital Hall, two large rehearsal halls, practice rooms, classrooms, and faculty studios and offices. A recording studio is available for students and faculty at the Downtown Campus.

THE UNIVERSITY: More than 30,000 students are currently enrolled at The University of Texas at San Antonio at two campus locations. UTSA offers more than 50 undergraduate, masters, and doctoral degrees through its six colleges and The Office of Graduate Studies. The Department of Music is part of the College of Liberal and Fine Arts, which includes eleven departments. The Department of Music is housed on the 600-acre 1604 Campus, located 20 minutes from downtown San Antonio in the South Texas Hill Country. The UTSA Downtown Campus, which opened in July of 1997, includes four buildings, a 300-seat theater, music technology labs, and a recording studio.

SAN ANTONIO: The seventh largest city in the United States, San Antonio has many multicultural attributes. Best known for its historic and cultural attractions, such as the Spanish Missions National Park, the Riverwalk, and the Alamo, the city is enjoying unprecedented growth with a rapid influx of new residents and businesses. The city's arts institutions include a number of organizations that sponsor concert, recital, opera, and dance series. San Antonio also has several art museums and galleries and is in the inaugural season of the new Tobin Center for the Performing Arts.

APPLICATIONS: Applicants must submit electronically a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three people who will act as references. The review of completed applications will begin on October 15, 2014 and will continue until position is filled. Other supportive materials will not be accepted at this time. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by time of hire. Send applications to:
