ASSISTANT PROFESSOR Painting and Drawing:

The Department of Art and Art History at the University of Texas at San Antonio invites applications for one tenure-track position at the rank of Assistant Professor for a studio artist with specialization in Painting and/or Drawing beginning in August 2013. This is a full-time appointment (pending budget approval) and it offers a competitive salary and benefits package. Applicants with diverse cultural, ethnic and national perspectives are welcome.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The successful candidate will demonstrate the ability to work in an integrated studio and lecture environment, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses as assigned. The regular teaching course load is 3-2, plus creative/research activities and service/committee obligations.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: 1) Master of Fine Arts degree in Studio Art; 2) at least three years of college level teaching experience; 3) a significant record of exhibition and artistic activity; and 4) the applicant must be able to develop, refine and teach courses ranging from non-majors to majors and from freshman through Graduate levels.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ART AND ART HISTORY: UTSA is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design. The Department offers studio art programs in ceramics, digital art, painting, photography, printmaking and sculpture that lead to the Bachelor of Arts Degree (BA), the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree (BFA) and the Master of Fine Arts Degree (MFA). Additionally, art history and criticism programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts Degree (BA) and the Master of Arts Degree (MA). The art and art history faculty is composed of eighteen full-time and twenty-two part-time faculty members. The Department serves approximately 2300 students per semester with approximately 490 undergraduate majors and 45 graduate students enrolled in the Studio and Art History programs. The Department also has two exhibition spaces: the UTSA Art Gallery on the 1604 Campus and the UTSA Satellite Space in the Blue Star Arts Complex near downtown.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT SAN ANTONIO: More than 30,000 students are currently enrolled in undergraduate, graduate and terminal degree programs at the University. San Antonio has many multicultural attributes. While best known for its historical attractions, the San Antonio Missions and the Riverwalk, it also supports a lively, thriving arts scene that includes the international residency program at Artpace, the nationally acclaimed Blue Star Contemporary Art Center; Southwest School of Art, San Antonio Museum of Art, the Alameda Museum and McNay Art Museum, as well as a growing number of other galleries and exhibition spaces.

Review of applications will commence starting November 1, 2012 and continue until position is filled. Applicants must submit: 1) a letter of application; 2) a current resume; 3) samples of research/published work, publications and presentations; 4) Names, postal and email addresses, and telephone numbers of three references 5) a self-addressed, postage/shipping paid envelope/box for return of materials. Applications must be submitted by mail or carrier, please no electronic submissions. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by the time of hire. UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Applications must be submitted to:
Painting and Drawing Search - University of Texas at San Antonio
Department of Art and Art History
Art Building 4.01.06
One UTSA Circle
San Antonio, TX 78249

For questions and additional information please contact:
Susan D'Haiti
210-458-6452
susan.dhaiti@utsa.edu