We’ll begin with Ibsen, Strindberg, and Chekhov and work our way through the 20th century ending with August Wilson. Modern drama is extremely varied and introduces political and social issues and significant literary styles and movements, such as realism, naturalism, theater of the absurd.

Thursday 5:30 - 8:15 p.m.