

Save the Date!

MY LIFE IN AFRICAN AMERICAN LITERACIES RESEARCH

Revisit conceptualization of African American Literacies, race broad trends in past and current work, and highlight current thinking and research, which includes a multifaceted approach drawing upon creative performance inquiry, storytelling, dialogic hip hop critical feminist and media literacies, to build community and collective critical consciousness with Black women and girls.

Organized by African American Studies Program and President's Office

Key Note speaker:

Dr. Elaine
Richardson

April 7th
11:30 AM— 1:00 PM
JPL Assembly Room.
4.04.22

UTSA
The University of Texas at San Antonio
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
CONSORTIUM FOR SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION
AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES