Are you ready for a Spanish Language Adventure??

UTSA

in Costa Rica

with SOL Education Abroad

July 15-August 5, 2017

Location: Heredia, Costa Rica

Eligible participants: Spanish majors and minors, and any non-major with appropriate language skills
Prerequisite: SPN 1024 or the equivalent.

Credit (3 hrs): Three hours of transfer credit from Latin University of Costa Rica

Extracurricular Activities:
- cultural activities
- volunteer and community service activities
- in-country adventures (rainforest hikes, ziplining, rafting)

Program cost includes the following: $2,495.00
- Tuition (1 class)
- Homestay (Room & Board)
- All Meals & Laundry Service
- Onsite Directors & Staff (with 24 hour a day support)
- Excursions and Cultural Activities
- Volunteer and Community Service
- Pre-departure Advising
- Program Orientation
- Airport Transfers
- Books and Onsite Tutoring
- Reception & Farewell Event
- Official Transcript
- International Medical Insurance
- Language Exchange

Not included:
- Roundtrip Airfare from San Antonio (around $700)
- UTSA International Education Fee ($150)

Contact: Department of Modern Languages and Literatures, MH 4.01.06, (210) 458-4377, and http://colfa.utsa.edu/modern-languages/costarica