- Dr. Hofferberth is an excellent instructor. He always keeps the class interesting and to the point. Great lecturer and professor!
- Good instructor but different from all others in his division of grades is really unfair, I would prefer not take any class with him in the future unless if I have to.
- I believe we were the first to take this course consequently it was hard to understand sometimes but very informative class.
- Professor Hofferberth is a great teacher. During his long classes he encourages active participation and there is always at least two group activities which are good, you are able to interact with your peers and learn a little bit more from different perspectives. I am looking forward to take him again during my next semester.
- Professor Hofferberth is an excellent teacher who always does his best to help students understand the course material. Research Methods was a difficult class for me, & I feel the material was difficult for most students to understand. The textbook was a bit bland & dry. I had no issues with Professor Hofferberth, as he always did his best to answer questions & have the class engage in topics at hand.
- Professor Hofferberth outlines his expectations and assignments clearly in addition to being well-prepared to teach the class. He goes the extra mile to engage students.
- Really enjoyed the teaching style and the great slides. Helped a lot when it came to the mid-term, especially because I was very confused with a lot of the methods at first. For a class that is almost 3 hours, it really helps having group activities to keep us all engaged. Students that have a long day of classes will sometimes zone out, but with the group activities it really helps to stay concentrated and focused on the lecturer.
- The class is too long.
- This class, although not the most entertaining class in the world, was made very interesting and engaging because of Prof. H. His grading was fair and his exams and essays were simple enough to follow because of his rubrics and his portrayal of information during class. I have enjoyed this class and the energy that is delivered during all of his lessons and interactive in-class activities! He is also very responsive during class time and responds to emails in a very detailed timely manner. I would definitely take professor H. again!
- This is a difficult course for me because it was my first time trying anything in global affairs but Professor Hofferberth did a good job with teaching it. The group activities forced me to really learn more on the class topic of the day, it encouraged me to clean more about it.
