- :)
- A more critical outlook of the UN needs to be taken and specific operations of the UN need to be discussed; my only criticism of the class is that it has been very general.
- Consistently one of my favorite professors to take. The material is always easy to follow as the powerpoint are well designed and easily accessible. The teaching is never too biased, which could be hard in the subject matter, and he really allows and encourages student discussion and discourse.
- Course was very fun, however it seemed like an extension of a society that the professor is the sponsor for. The required conference to participate in the course is put against an alternative that almost no student would want to take part in. It felt as almost a get out of jail free card to making his conference a requirement without stating it as such.
- Expects more out of students than many can provide, considering students have more responsibilities than we can count. Being hard on students is one thing, but this professor needs to realize that their expectations take away from the enjoyability of the class thus making students less inclined to participate because they genuinely want to. Also, seemingly respects male students more so than their female counterparts.
- Fun and interesting, Dr. Hofferberth had very clear and informative lectures, easy to follow
- Great informative class, would take Dr. Hofferberth for every class if i could, great person and professor ! no further comments.
- Hofferberth is an outstanding professor. He's been one of my favorite teachers because he is always ready to teach as well as listen to his students. He also is very organized and quick to respond in and out of class. He is excellent at his job and I'm glad I took his class.
- I absolutely adored his passion for both the UN and MUN. He took time to make sure all students were heard and was respectful of all opinions. Additionally, he did not put students down when they gave the wrong answers and made sure to go above and beyond in each lecture. I can't wait to take a class from him again!
- I am honestly upset that I only had the opportunity to take this professor once throughout my bachelor's degree. He is my favorite professor by far. His lectures are well organized, thought-provoking and well delivered. He is also the only professor to ever ask for feedback, much the less actually follow it! I was able to participate in the Model UN that he oversees, TWICE... and it was LITERALLY the best part of my entire college education. I was able to use all that I have learned in a simulated application and it was honestly the most fun I have had in the entirety of my education. The conference's brought together many different types of people from all over Texas and besides the fact that it was truly a memorable, educational experience and it was so well organized that we had the time and opportunity to really learn about other countries with many challenges to educate us. Dr. Hofferberth is truly the best professor at UTSA, hands down. He is funny, extremely intelligent and cares very deeply for his students and their education. UTSA is lucky to have him!
- I believe Professor Hofferberth is a great professor and brings a lot of value to UTSA's classrooms. The subjects he teaches are challenging, and the assignments are equally as hard. However, you gain a lot of knowledge from taking one of his classes.
- I thoroughly enjoyed the course. I have only had a few professors that I have personally felt were truly teaching me and I am happy to say Dr. Hofferberth is one of them. My only comment is that there should be more group/partner time in class. We did get that a lot towards the end of the semester and I thoroughly enjoyed it. Other than that, great course. Very instructive.
- Interesting class to say the least, there was a lot of participation and active engagement that was involved to say the least. Super cool teacher to learn from and a professor I would highly recommend in the near future.
- Nice professor.
- Professor Hofferberth is passionate about his work, his course and takes time to engage with his students, as well as provide thoughtful feedback.
Hofferberth genuinely wants his students to care about their learning and provides interactive and focused framework to cater to each student's learning style, while checking in to make sure his class fully comprehends the material and assignments. I appreciate his organization and level of care for his students' education. Additionally, he is easy on the eyes—always nice.

- Professor Hofferberth is truly one of the most competent and inspiring professors within the GLA department. Not only was he helpful in class, but also provided assistance in overall career development. The effort he puts into his lectures and students is truly apparent. I would not recommend taking this course in concurrence with other upper division courses as it is very demanding, however it is rewarding. As an overall area of improvement, I only wish participation in Model UN was not required due to financial and physical obligations.

- Professor Hofferberth was interactive with the class, is very obviously knowledgeable about the United Nations, and encourages you to think on a broader spectrum about the world.

- Thanks again for a great class Dr. Hofferberth! I enjoy the balance of lecture as well as group and partner activities.

- The course was very helpful in mixing interactive, group activities and traditional lectures that made the course very engaging and fun. The Model UN experience was an important piece of the course because it allowed me to get a taste of how diplomatic conventions operate. Thank you Dr. Hofferberth.

- The professor has great energy and gets students excited about the topics. However, sometimes he is unclear about his exact outline for assignments and grades based on speaking in front of other.

- The professor was overall very prepared and very professional, you can learn a lot from this course if you put the time and effort. The only thing I wish he could've done better was being more specific on the feedback regarding papers, I felt comments or suggestions were needed regarding essays.

- The professor was very concise with what he wanted and really cared about our education. My only suggestion is that he allows more time for questions and student-led discussions to be held since he focused more on lecturing than on anything else.

- This course required a lot of work. It did more what it was supposed to do (challenged students). We had to attend a very long conference as part of our grade. Class is not an easy A you must earn it. Professor is extremely clear about what he expects in the course. Professor communicated what was required. Professor is very organized. Professor is good at answering emails promptly. Professor is hard but he is straightforward about the difficulty of his course and lets it be VERY KNOWN. This course was a requirement per my degree works.

- Professor was in love with the UN and hardly criticized it fairly and was also an extremely and unreasonably tough grader. He requires the class to spend an entire weekend to participate in Model UN
