

Archaeology Crossword Puzzle: Test your skills!

Down:

1. Archaeologists always ___ their findings.
3. Many archaeologists use a ___ to find evidence of the past.
4. A durable material used to make a variety of tools.
6. When archaeologists find artifacts not common to the area, it is usually evidence of ___ with other groups.
7. A system of shared human behavior.
10. A site's permanent reference point is called the ___.
11. Prior to digging an archaeologist must obtain a ___ before work can begin.
12. To find very small artifacts, it is necessary to ___ dirt.

Across:

2. An _____ is any object made, modified or used by humans.
5. Looting an archaeological site destroys its _____.
8. Walking in a straight line and marking artifacts prior to excavation.
9. A collection of associated artifacts is often called a _____.
13. A _____ can be a hearth, burial, or midden.
14. A written document detailing the results of an archaeological investigation.
15. A location of past human activity is called an archaeological _____.